PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the universal spread of information, knowledge and education among the people is an indispensable and salutary factor of progress, good citizenship and government; and

WHEREAS, throughout the years of our history under a Constitution and laws guaranteeing freedom of expression of news and opinions, the public press of South Dakota has fearlessly and effectively maintained the spread of information, knowledge and education among our people through reliable news and wholesome editorial comment and thereby has added much to the impressive record of progress and development which South Dakota has made; and

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has designated the period of October 1 to 8, 1945, as National Newspaper Week,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M Q SHARPE, GOVERNOR OF SOUTH DAKOTA, do hereby proclaim the period of October 1, to October 8, 1945 as

APPRECIATE YOUR NEWSPAPER WEEK

and I suggest:

That during that period by letter or personal call we express to our acquaintances among the editors, reporters and staffs of South Dakota newspapers our appreciation of their public service and contribution to the progress and development of our people and our state; and further

That during October our public schools and all institutions of learning give some special attention to appreciation of the public press and some additional instructional information concerning the benefits and influence of freedom of speech and press.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota to be affixed, this 24th day of September, 1945.

M Q SHARPE
Governor
